

Team Management & Team Play

Program Snapshot

Individuals and corporations in the present day require teamwork, partnership and collaboration to meet their progressive business goals. Our interventions to facilitate team management and team play do precisely this. The participants learn how to be effective in managing their own work group(s) and/or team(s) in real work situations by

- Understanding their own behavioural styles and how they affect others in the group
- Acquiring appropriate skills and associated behaviours to enable better team work
- Learning how to resolve differences and minimise detrimental factors
- Practicing how to tackle their specific team/individual issues in a non-intimidating environment
- Resolving conflict of interest without compromising on outcomes/goals
